

HOW DO YOU GET EVERYONE TO BE ON THE SAME CULTURE PAGE?

By launching an organizational-wide movement! Give every employee The Florence Prescription. It is more than a fictional story. With over 500,000 copies in print, it is a manifesto for creating a more positive and productive culture of ownership in healthcare organizations.

In this heartwarming and thought-provoking story you will learn:

- » Why the Invisible Architecture of core values, organizational culture, and workplace attitude is more important than the visible architecture of bricks and mortar when it comes to employee engagement and patient satisfaction.
- » Why a culture of ownership requires people who are Emotionally Positive, Self Empowered, and Fully Engaged (the 3 commitments of The Florence Challenge).
- » How to use The Pickle Pledge and The Pickle Challenge for Charity to eliminate bullying, incivility, and toxic emotional negativity from the workplace.
- » How to use the seven promises of The Self Empowerment Pledge (Responsibility, Accountability, Determination, Contribution, Resilience, Perspective and Faith) to be a stronger person and foster a more fully empowered workplace.
- » And a whole lot more.
